Neighbourhood Highlights

Shopping

From the traditional shopping destination Suria KLCC, built around Petronas Twin Towers, to the trendiest retail options of Pavilion Shopping Mall at Bukit Bintang, you'll find big name brands or local indie boutiques to shop to your heart's content. For authentic Malay arts and crafts, the Central Market offers a dazzling variety of choices.

Sightseeing

Bring your kids for a half-day out to Aquaria KLCC and open their eyes to exotic marine creature exhibits, admire the remarkable KL skyline from the iconic KL towers, pose for a picture before the magnificent Old KL Rail Station, or venture farther afield to the iconic Batu Caves, just north of KL.

Dining

Venture out to Chinatown at Petaling Street or the local favourite Jalan Alor with rows upon rows of food stalls after sundown, dishing up everything from authentic Malay noodles to Indian curry.
